The Vine Hotel

Funchal, Madeira, Portugal

Arriving at the hotel, the great purple staircase and the metal mesh symbolise the summer rain, giving the guest the warm welcome.

In the lobby, the restaurant "Terra Lounge" represents the vineyards, and the garden with all the sofas are like big baskets of harvest and the purple cushions, the colour of the wine.

The floor finishing is covered with small round pebbles, representing the beaches of pebbles on the Island.

The designers chose the colour purple for the lobby interior, a colour that is usually difficult to handle, in order to create a different space. The colour is well explored with lighting, fully demonstrating its mystery and sensibility. The interior design is not complicated. Lighting and colour are the two key elements which are utilised to the full. The glaring furniture, the wash painting patterns on the wall, the cloud-like central sofa, and the tassels beside the staircase together create a dreamy space.

1. Lighting is an excellent interior decorative element
2. The interior design is simple yet romantic
3. The rounded fabric sofa in the atrium
4. The spiral stair is decorated with tassels and the lighting belts on the ceiling
