Na Quinta de Lemos, em Passos de Silgueiros, perto de Viseu, ganhou forma uma moderna casa de hóspedes projetada pelo arquiteto Carvalho Araújo, que esteve no início de 2014 entre os nomeados para os reconhecidos prémios Archdaily.

Embora reservada a convidados e clientes da Família Lemos, cuja reputação no domínio dos têxteis de luxo e dos vinhos do Dão é digna de registo, esta original guest house serpenteia discretamente na paisagem, vivendo em perfeita simbiose com o exterior, em parte graças à dinâmica da sua estrutura longitudinal e ao minimalismo da decoração assinada por Nini Andrade Silva.

At the Quinta de Lemos, in Passos de Silgueiros, near Viseu, a modern guest house designed by architect Carvalho Araújo has taken shape, which, in early 2014, was among the nominees for the acclaimed Archdaily awards.

Although reserved for guests and clients of the Lemos Family, whose reputation in the field of luxury textiles and in Dão wines is more than worthy of mention, this unique guest house meanders discreetly through the landscape, existing in perfect harmony with outdoors, thanks in part to the dynamics of its longitudinal structure and to the minimalism of the decoration, created by Nini Andrade Silva.
